

Ready - Respectful - Safe Expectations in Lessons

Our aim is to support you in your pursuit of excellence in everything you do. In class we want you to be successful by being an active, engaged learner and live out our virtues. We all have a responsibility to contribute to a positive learning environment. Your teacher will use the steps below to remind you if you are not meeting our Ready, Respectful, Safe expectations.

Reminder

Reminder of our RRS behaviour expectations.
Clear instructions will be given by the member of staff.

Caution

You have chosen to disrupt your lesson, Your teacher will emphasise our RRS expectations and you will pass your Learning Diary to them.

C1 Disruption to Learning

You have chosen to disrupt the learning again.
Your teacher will re-emphasise our RRS expectations and log a C1 Disruption to Learning.

C2 Support Classroom

Learning has been further disrupted, your behaviour is still not meeting our RRS expectations. You will be removed to work in a support classroom; this will be logged as a C2 Support Classroom. A lunchtime reflection will be issued. Where appropriate, you will be given the opportunity to participate in a reparation conversation.

C3 Emergency On Call

Serious one off incident / refusal to go to support classroom / further disruption in support classroom. You will be removed to work in G5C; this will be logged as a C3 Emergency On Call. A lunchtime reflection will be issued. Where appropriate, you will be given the opportunity to participate in a reparation conversation. Failure to attend lunch time reflection will result in an after-school reflection or time in G5C.
